

1989 Otsego County Fair Premium Book Is Dedicated To

Wayne and Lillian Ballard

Wayne and Lillian have always been interested in the Otsego County Fair as they have raised horses and been very active in harness racing. Wayne is the Superintendent of the Race Track and Race Horse Barn. Lillian helps Wayne with cleaning and taking care of the Camp Grounds. With their help Otsego County Fair has one of the best race tracks in Northern Michigan. Wayne and Lillian also are in charge of rental of the Fair Buildings for winter storage.

Wayne and Lillian have been married 37 years. They have 3 children; Diane, Yvonne and Jon. Their son, Jon, helps Wayne train his race horses.

Wayne is a retired Gaylord Community School Bus Maintenance Superintendent.

The Otsego County Fair Board would like to thank Wayne and Lillian for their dedication to making our Fair one of the best in Northern Michigan.